The TOEFL® Family of Assessments:
Trusted information to help you make more confident decisions based on students’ English proficiency.
When you use the TOEFL® Family of Assessments, you get the accurate and comprehensive information you need to help you confidently guide students to the next step of their English language learning journey.
The TOEFL® Family of Assessments:
Helping institutions assess more students at more English-language proficiency levels.

Important decisions about your students can have a long-term impact on your institution. That’s why using the TOEFL® tests is a smart idea. The overall goal for every TOEFL test is to measure communicative skills with tasks that reflect the appropriate proficiency, cognitive and age levels. Whether for admissions or for programme placement, advancement or exiting, the TOEFL Family of Assessments provides the information you need to help you make confident decisions.

Use this chart to determine which TOEFL test is best based on intended use and student age group.

Use this chart to determine which TOEFL test is best based on intended use and student age group.
The TOEFL Primary Tests
For young students, to measure current English skills and provide a foundation for future success (ages 8+)

Designed to assess the general English-language proficiency of young students ages 8+ in reading, listening and speaking, the TOEFL Primary tests provide support for teaching and learning with information about your students’ abilities in relation to international standards.

Benefits of the TOEFL Primary tests include:
• Fast turnaround time of score reports to help in planning instruction
• Recommendations about next steps that students can take to improve their English-language abilities
• Scores that are mapped to CEFR levels, so you will know about your students’ abilities in relation to international benchmarks
• Reading scores that are linked to Lexile® measures, making it easier to find the books and articles that best match students’ English reading abilities

Ways you can use TOEFL Primary scores:
• Guide teaching goals
• Monitor students’ progress
• Identify students’ strengths and weaknesses
• Determine instructional plans
• Inform placement decisions in levels of English instruction
• Shape communication with parents about students’ learning

Learn more about how the TOEFL Primary tests can help you and your younger students by visiting www.etsglobal.org.

The TOEFL Junior Tests
For middle school to early high-school level English language programmes (ages 11+)

The TOEFL Junior tests test provide an accurate and reliable measure of your students’ academic and social English skills and abilities in a school setting.

Benefits of the TOEFL Junior tests include:
• Measuring a range of skills to better meet the expectations of English-language programmes worldwide
• Accurate scoring and convenient administrations
• Meaningful score reports and performance feedback to tailor English instruction and guide conversations with parents
• Mapping student achievement to CEFR levels for international benchmarking
• Advising students on appropriate book selections based on Lexile® measures to improve English reading proficiency

Ways you can use TOEFL Junior scores:
• Determine whether your students have sufficient communicative English skills to succeed in a classroom that uses English for instruction
• Place students in English-language programmes so they are matched with level-appropriate instruction
• Monitor progress over time to gauge students’ learning and proficiency

The TOEFL ITP Tests
For university-level English language learning programmes (ages 16+)

The TOEFL ITP Assessment Series is one of the world’s leading on-site English-language testing programmes used by 2,500 institutions in 50+ countries. Based on the rich heritage of the TOEFL test, the series empowers teachers to tailor their instruction so they can better guide students to the next step of learning.

Benefits of the TOEFL ITP tests include:
• Convenient, affordable and flexible local administration
• Fast scoring for timely feedback into students’ learning plans
• Two levels to provide flexibility for testing students in a range of proficiencies
• Better understanding of each student’s proficiency with mapping to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) and corresponding certificate

Ways you can use TOEFL ITP scores:
• Placement and exiting for English language programmes
• Progress monitoring
• Scholarship programmes
• Admissions to short-term, non-degree programmes
• Admissions to universities where English is not the dominant language
• University exit test

The TOEFL iBT Test
For university-level admissions (ages 16+)

Using 100 percent academic content, the TOEFL iBT test measures the kind of integrated English skills students actually use in an academic setting — including reading, listening, speaking and writing.

The TOEFL test is used by more than 10,000 institutions, immigration authorities and scholarship agencies worldwide, including the United States, the U.K., Australia, Canada and Europe.

Benefits of the TOEFL iBT test include:
• Access to a large and diverse applicant pool
• Rigorous research to support design and validity
• Accurate and unbiased scores institutions can trust

Ways you can use TOEFL iBT scores:
• College and university admissions
• Graduate programme admissions
• Fellowship and scholarship awards
• Visa and immigration
• Teacher certification
